Luigi Porto — L'Apocalisse Delle Scimmie (with bonus CD) ... LP 22.99

A really dark little soundtrack – contemporary, but at a level that really looks back at older horror scoring from the 80s and before – put together with a strong ear for some of the more stark elements in avant composition as well! The music is a great change from some of the overdone slasher modes – and instead features a moody blend of subtle strings, voice, and lots of low-end sonic textures – a few that are rhythmic at points, but mostly moving at a relatively slow pace to fill in the background with a great deal of tension! The album's one of the few in this excellent Cineploit series to actually be featured in a film – and titles include "Distaste", "Nel Parco", "Le Vespe", "Cecilia O La Danza Spinata", "Casal Bruciato", and "Iodouro Di Potassio".

Playwright (Japan), 2014. New Copy
CD...$13.99 ~~24.99~~

We really love these guys – and are continually amazed at what they can do with just bass, drums, and piano – all very conventional instruments, but used by Fox Capture Plan in this soaringly soulful style! The music's not entirely jazz – because all three instruments are very ...

Innovative Leisure, 2014. New Copy
CD...$12.99 ~~13.98~~ (LP...$17.99)

The best work so far from this ultra-hip trio – an amazing combination of keyboards, bass, and drums – served up in styles that are rooted in funk and jazz, but go to so many other places as well! The drums crackle with a quality schooled in 70s breaks and beats, stripped down to their ...

Schema (Italy), 2014. New Copy
CD...$19.99 (LP...$26.99)

A brilliantly soulful set from Nicola Conte – a record that's got all the tight jazzy instrumentation we love in his other records, but one that's also got some wonderful vocal work as well! Singers are a perfectly-chosen batch of the best of the underground – and include Jose James, ...
